Hi Nick & Brandon,

I do hope a phone call to the jail by one of you will help Jenny. Jenny is not in the MHMRA section of the jail. She is in the general population. Landon went to visit her just now. I am sick or I would be there. She has a black eye. She takes her meds at 9:00am and 9:00pm. She was given her meds at 3:00pm. Jennifer told Landon she is not stable, which is because she does not have the right medication. She should have never left the St. Joseph Hospital. The case worker did not coordinate with Jenny's doctor, Ms. Murphy in Longview.

Again, she is not going to be a good witness, if she is not stable on her meds. I do hope nothing happens to Jenny in the jail by the other inmates. Jenny is very irrational when she is not stable. I am worried for her safety.

This needs to be fixed asap.

Barb
