The Right Thing (TRT) will consider making recommendations during the 2018 election cycle, primary and general elections. We will not necessarily endorse or recommend a candidate in every race.

We will not consider for endorsement any candidate who does not complete this questionnaire. Completing the questionnaire does not guarantee an endorsement.

1. Briefly describe why you have chosen to run for public office.

2. Discuss your strength as a candidate and all additional political experience.

3. Discuss what you have done, or will do, to work together with other elected officials on issues important to the Latino community.

4. Please recommend a program, commission or agency you might be willing to cut or eliminate and how that will benefit the community as whole as well as the Latino community.

5. Will you oppose every effort to increase the overall tax burden in Texas? Can you name a current tax you would repeal? If you are a judicial candidate, will you uphold the law as it relates to bait and switch tax-payer issued bonds?

6. Do you support race-based affirmative action in the areas of education, employment and contracting?

7. Do you support the adoption of Common Core national educational standards? Please give a brief explanation.

8. What is your position on gun control? Please give a brief explanation.

9. Do you believe in securing the Texas border? How should we secure the Texas borders? Who should do it and pay for it? How does your view on border security impact the perception of Republicans in the Latino community?

Below are listed four topics. Using a scale of 1 to 4 rank them as you view them individually, as a priority. With the digit "1" being of most significance to you.
